Another Eventful Year for El Centro.... Here are some highlights

This year has passed by very quickly, but it was full of wonderful events and amazing turnouts. Here are a few highlights of 09-10.

*El Centro Open House: We had food and live music with over 150 faculty and students who joined us.

*Salsa Dancing: Collaborated with ASAP to teach students how to Salsa. We had a turn out of about 100 students to this amazing event.

*Women at Noon: Women Empowering Women. This was a panel of women talking about how their struggles made them a stronger person today.

*Sonia Nazario: She presented a workshop on America and Immigration. Sonia also talked about single mothers and Central and South America.

*Evening of Music, Dance, and Fashion: This was held in the LSC and about 120 people from CSU and Fort Collins community attended. We had a group called Quemando perform and talk about the different types of Latin music.

*Hispanic Heritage Month: It was filled with events such as a kick off on the plaza, and a play by El Centro Su Teatro called “La carpa de los rasquachis”.

Brown Bag Series: Semester full of workshops to help academically and to get involved on campus.

*Math, Science, & Tech Day: 4th grade students from the Poudre School District spend a day full of activities on the CSU campus. It helps plant the seed in the kids minds that a college degree is attainable.

*El dia de los muertos: Had a dance group called Quetzalcoatl perform and Bobby Lefebre did a poetic altar.

*Cesar Chavez Day: A week long celebration full of documentaries, community celebration and high school awards, and narrative concerts.

*El Centro Awards Ceremony: For the past two years we have recognized CSU students, faculty, and leaders in the Fort Collins Community.
